It was a wonderful break to leave the wintry northeast for a couple of days in warm Florida and to be greeted with such a nice entry was a true pleasure. My thanks to the Bull Terrier Club of Tampa Bay for the opportunity to judge and to the Spanglers for their gracious hospitality. I very much enjoyed being able to chat and be with club members at the get together.

COLORED

Reserve Winners Dog

Bavol's Old England's Falcon (Silver Bullet The Joker At Javarke x Ch. Old England's Lady Elizabeth) Very attractive red and white puppy with a classically shaped head and reach to the neck. Reminiscent of his grand sire. Lovely lines. He begs the eye. Head has length, turn and finish. Very good expression. Good bone for age and size. Soft behind the withers. Well put on hind quarters. Moved most truly going away.

Winners Dog, Best of Winners, Best of Opposite Sex

Woodman's Skyline Defies Dazlin (Ch. Dazlin Defiance x Ch. Skyline's Sticks N' Stones) Well marked red and white. Strong head piece exemplifying strength and power. Good length. Very good fill. Well placed eyes lend good expression. Correct mouth. Most bone of the boys today. Covers the ground with reach and drive from the side. Moving a bit wide coming. Moves parallel going away – the action is a bit exaggerated. While his showmanship was on the apathetic side, he had enough guns to carry the day.

Reserve Winners Bitch

McConnell and Bavol's Old England's Duchess of Silver (Silver Bullet The Joker At Javarke x Ch. Old England's Lady Elizabeth) Upstanding, elegant silver brindle and white puppy with pretty lines. Good bone for her age and size. Head has a pleasant shape with a smooth profile. Correct mouth. Pretty reach of neck. Bone extends through the pasterns front and rear. Strong across the topline. Good angulation at both ends. Covers the ground truly all ways.

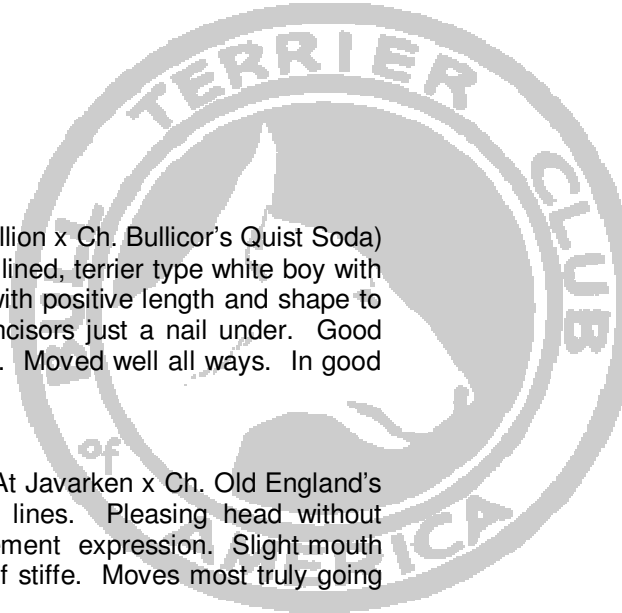

Winners Bitch

Pressier-Tash's Super Bowls Hardtoget (Shadow Master To Bullorrities x Super Bowl's Fenomenon) Bully brindle and white girl with a super head. No hollows or indents, this head is strong in its amount of fill extending through a deep muzzle and with excellent turn. Good finish. The head shape is complimented with well set eyes making for good expression. Correct mouth. Plenty of depth, breadth and power through the body. Good bone. Would like more length to the upper arm and better layback of the shoulder. Shapely underline. Moved with drive. Very well presented.

Best of Variety

Hopkin's Terjo's Celtic Broken Arrow (Megavilles Sardonicus x Javarke Calico of Terjo's) Top drawer package of compelling virtues in this show stopping solid brindle girl. Square and sound she never puts a toe out of line. Her head has lovely length, turn and fill. Good eye placement. Correct mouth. Lovely length to the neck which extends into a very good forehead. Tidy, tight front sitting on cat feet. Adequate bone for size. Ribs well sprung with good depth to the chest. Correct across the topline. Hind quarters are well set on and drive her well. Good tail set. Moves as beautifully as her make and shape dictates. Perfectly presented in excellent condition.

WHITE

Winners Dog

Azeur and Kieling's Bully Manor's Hunter (Ch. Miramax Maximillion x Ch. Bullicor's Quist Soda) A single entry representing the white class boys today. Smooth lined, terrier type white boy with tri-colored eye patch. Head possesses good profile and finish with positive length and shape to the top skull. Adequate fill. Mouth has correct canines with incisors just a nail under. Good depth to the chest. Straight font. Short backed. Well balanced. Moved well all ways. In good coat and condition.

Reserve Winners Bitch

Bavol's Old England's Visiting Angel (Silver Bullet The Joker At Javarken x Ch. Old England's Lady Elizabeth) Very attractive, square youngster with lovely lines. Pleasing head without exaggeration. Smooth in profile. Adequate fill. Good eye placement expression. Slight mouth fault. Very pretty lines to the neck and forehead. Good bend of stifle. Moves most truly going away. A promising package.

Winners Bitch (and Best of Winners)

Greaney's Grisebasse Tyrann (Trick Or Treat Armageddon x Quest Heritage De Grisebasse) Scopey girl with brindle eye patch. Very pretty lines. Strong head piece with assets of very good profile, fill, finish and muzzle power. Good expression. Slight mouth fault with correct canines. Pretty arch and length to the neck extending into a straight front. Would wish for more smoothness through the shoulders. Enough bone for size. Solid topline which holds on the move. Well angled hind quarters which move with drive. Will benefit with time for maturity.

Best of Opposite Sex

Azur's Ch. Bully Manor's Centurion (Ch. Miramax Maximillion x Bullover's Bailey Cream) Well known, all white, mature and masculine dog presented in excellent form and showing with full attention on his task. Well turned profile to the head. Excellent eye and expression. Very good finish. Correct mouth. Straight front. Enough bone. Deep throughout the body. Ribs well sprung. Would like a bit more angulation fore and aft. Good tail set. Moved typically. Looking his best.

Best of Variety

Butcher and Berez's Ch. Action Pure Class (Ch. Bestuvall Razor Redi Cut x Ch. Dajan Classy Action) Classical lines to this now mature broody type. Lovely shape to the head which is turned and with good fill. Positive expression with dark eye. Correct mouth. Clean front construction. Plenty of substance and depth through the body. Good across the topline which holds on the move. A tad long cast. Appropriate angulation behind. Moved well all ways. Well presented, in good condition and asking for the win.
