I would like to thank the Bull Terrier Fanciers for inviting me to judge their show and the exhibitors for their quality entry. The hospitality was exceptional which made the trip a delight.

BULL TERRIERS: 9-10-(1-5)

WINNERS DOG: Wilson and Dussault's Legacy Hughes Your Daddy of Winsor (Ch. Victoria's Grimaldi Windfall x Ch. Windors Hope Springs Eternal) White. Elegant and shapely in profile. Good length of head, filled and gently turned. Mouth correct. Tiny eye well placed. Nice round bone. Moved well both coming and going. Needs to mature.

RESERVE WINNERS DOG: White's Nimrod's Samuel Elias at Beton (Miramax Maximillion x Ch. Beton Winsor's Full House). White. Strong head, filled and turned. Scissors bite. Good bone for size, with a nice short back.

WINNERS BITCH , BEST OF WINNERS & BEST OF VARIETY: Alexander & Mason's Brigadoon Go Go Boots (Ch. Brenbull's Root For Me as That x Ch. Brigadoon Etoile Blanc) Typey dark brindle and white, shown in excellent condition. Her head is well filled up with good turn and finish. Correct mouth. A well-balanced bitch with a short back, good shoulder and rear angulation. Moved well.

RESERVE WINNERS BITCH: Wilson & Dussault's Winsor's Hot Mocha Java Lovely tri-color bitch. Lovely head is filled down to the muzzle, with a tiny well-placed eye and a gently sweeping profile. Wonderful length of neck with good lay of shoulder. She has good bone for her size and beautiful feet. Movement good both coming and going. Slight mouth fault.

BEST OF OPPOSITE SEX: Jacobsen & McKinley's Ch. Rootn Flirtn With Texas
substantial and masculine dog with terrific bone. Head with lots of power and a correct bite. Moved parallel going away and coming.
