I would like to thank the Bull Terrier Club of Puget Sound for inviting me to judge sweepstakes at their show. The weather and venue were wonderful and the club's hospitality was second to none. It was great to see some old friends from the west coast and just as great to make some new ones. I continue to enjoy my gift; Dr. David Harris' new book, The Bully Breeds.

It was quite a pleasure to judge the five puppies entered in the sweepstakes. All were of exceptional quality, in great condition and all had perfect bites. Thanks to all the exhibitors.

Best Colored in Sweeps and Best in Sweeps

Blackwell and Lebel's Bullenium's Harvest Moon – An upstanding red and white dog from the 9-12 month class. He has a beautiful wide, packed and filled head with lovely turn. Good expression. He moves well and has nice bone. At ten months old, he has quite a bit of maturing to do but he shows a lot of promise. He is quite the eager showman.

Junior Dog, 12-18 months

Dykema and Coy's Bestuvall Sho' Is Hot – A medium sized dog with a nice head with plenty of fill and turn and a good expression. He is well balanced and moves well although not very enthusiastically. He apparently was saving his Sho'-manship for the "real show" where he won Best of Variety.

Best of Opposite Colored and Best of Opposite in Sweeps

Dykema's Bestuvall Too Hot To Stop – From the 12-18 month class, a cobby brindle and white bitch with a lovely head that is wide, packed and turned. Great expression. She is short backed and moves well. She has very good bone and good feet. To be critical she stands a bit wide in the front. Definitely my kind of gal!

Puppy Bitch, 9-12 months

Myall, Harmon and Smith's Magor Islay Passion – Nicely made red and white bitch with a lovely profile. To be very critical I would prefer a bit more fill. Enough bone for her size. Moves well. A very pretty puppy with a bright future.

Best White in Sweeps

Utt and Gotham's Bullards and Ardry's Hot Ice – A lovely 16 month old white bitch who was the only white entered in the sweeps. My guess is all the other's stayed away because they knew they couldn't beat her! She has a classic headpiece with a lovely profile and great expression. Nice bone for her size. I would prefer a bit shorter back. A good mover.
