I would like to thank the club members and exhibitors for providing such a high quality entry, I thoroughly enjoyed the luxury of enough time to consider each of these top class participants. Intermittent wind and rain challenged some of the dogs and their handlers.

Colored dogs (5/13/3/1)

Winners dog

Bavol's Old England Montgomery (Silver Bullet the joker x Ch Old England's Lady Elizabeth)
Nicely balanced medium sized red smut with smooth profile and good expression, mouth is correct, This puppy has a good reach of neck, nice bone and lovely side movement. He is unexaggerated in all details,

Huey's Crestmont Savoir Faire (Ch Cool Conquistador of Crossgarley X Ch Crestmont's Chances are Bestuvall) Incredible headed brindle and white with deeply set wicked eye and really off mouth. Front end of this dog is really nice with good layback of shoulder beautiful, straight forehand and good feet, At this time with puppy pulling all over, he makes his topline roachy and rear movement is all over, This is a gangly puppy just starting to mature and still lacking spring of rib. Standing still this is one spectacular looking puppy, He should win top honors when fully mature and able to carry his deficits

I also considered my puppy dog Skyline's Hot Pursuit (Marshelsea Hows about Harry X Ch Skyline's Sticks and Stones) Typy smallish red and white who was the best headed colored dog with a correct bite. He is very virtuous but having a great evening in the rain with topline and tail flying high so at the final moment, I decided to wait to see how he matures. By Sunday and with more ring experience I loved what I saw,

Colored Bitch

Winner's Bitch, best of variety, best of breed,

Bavol's Old England's Coco Chanel (Tulsadoom Abi Albon-Ch Old England's Milady in Red)--
Dark brindle and white with well turned and filled head and showing to perfection, One you have to notice as soon as she presents herself, Ears a bit to the side and eye well placed but a little large, Just a year, this lady is full bodied with good spring of rib and lovely condition, She has fully dropped wide chest and good bone, maintains her topline well on the move, true coming towards with drive going away, thought she was an extremely virtuous young bitch

Reserve Colored Bitch

Breese and Blackwell's Bullenium's Honeymoon At Settebello (Ch Bullenium Big Bazooka - Kholander Kinda Refined Terrier type well marked black and white with feminine head, gently turned profile, perky ears, good bite, She is beautifully constructed, with her long neck, good topline and proper movement earned her this spot, she is presented and shown to perfection
Bavol's and Shelby's Ch Old Forge Falcon- this classy red and white boy is maturing nicely, he is upstanding and full of style, head is gently turned and mouth is correct, red smut gives him good expression. He is just starting to mature and could use a bit more forechest and spring of rib but the shape that he has really draws the eye to him, I cannot wait to see him in a few more months,
