

Texas Gulf Coast Bull Terrier Club

June 15, 2025

Judge: Phil Jaspers

I would like to sincerely thank the Texas Gulf Coast Bull Terrier Club for inviting me to judge one of their 2025 specialties. The show was exceptionally well organized, and the hospitality extended to me was truly outstanding. The club dinner was a highlight; wonderful food paired with engaging conversations about the breed made for a memorable evening. It was a pleasure to spend time with such a passionate and welcoming group.

I'm especially grateful to all the exhibitors who travelled from near and far to present their dogs. It was a privilege to go over so many quality animals and I appreciate the time, effort, and sportsmanship each exhibitor brought to the ring.

COLORED, 1-6 (5-4)

Winners Dog

Edgardo Llanas, THE ONE AND ONLY EARN YOUR STRIPES (The One And Only Chacorta ex The One And Only Lets Shine Together) Sound, well-marked brindle and white male with a masculine head and good width of muzzle. He displays a smooth profile with a pleasing Roman finish and a kind eye. His body is well-balanced, with correct length of back and a well-set tail. Both front and rear angulation are correct, contributing to his clean, efficient movement coming and going.

He has a pleasing expression, complemented by correctly set ears and a perfect bite. His back is of good length, though additional return of the upper arm (humerus) would enhance his overall balance. He presents a strong, compact front—slightly bully in appearance—with substantial bone that carries down through to his pasterns. His feet are tidy and he moved soundly coming and going. This boy is a true eyecatcher in the ring.
