

Bull Terrier Club of America Silverwood LV
Kingsport, Tennessee
Saturday, October 12th, 2024

With thanks to the Bull Terrier Club of America for the invitation to judge at this show, one of the most prestigious events in the Bull Terrier calendar, it was indeed an honour for me to officiate along with my co-judges Stuart Cairns and Hans Konings who together made the proceedings very agreeable. I would also like to sincerely thank all the exhibitors who showed their “pride and joys” on the day, the quality amongst the exhibits was exceedingly impressive and proved a challenging and enjoyable experience for me.

Best Colored Dog and Silverwood Winner

Sodomsky, Sodomsky and Prater-Piles’ GCHS CH Malajo's Formula For A Drama Devil
(GCH CH Action Devils Apprentice By Formula X GCH CH Actions Formula For A Queen CGC)

Really handsome, heavyweight, red dog of excellent quality, make and shape. He looked every inch a super specimen of the breed, exceedingly typy. A gorgeous head, strong, egg shaped with a good profile, fill and strength when viewed from the front, well placed eye giving an excellent expression. He stood out for me and I was very pleased to be in complete agreement with my co-judge as to awarding him the Silverwood Trophy.

Best White Dog

Schmidt’s GCH CH Grabo Rorschach Revelation At Cerberus (Rabram Rock Star X Grabo Bahama Moon)

Well made, elegant white dog with a brindle head mark and a mismark on his back. He has a gentle curved profile to the head, well filled with a sharp expression, well placed and shaped ears. Mouth fault. Lovely neckline, good front, with very neat, tightly shaped feet. Short back with well angulated quarters. Moved ok coming but a bit close going away. Excellent ring presence, overall a very pleasing dog with lots to like.
