

BTCA National Specialty

Sunday, October 15, 2023

Peggy Beisel-McIlwaine

Greenville, SC

Judging a national is definitely a huge highpoint in my judging career and when it is a breed that has become a very integral part of my life it is even more meaningful. I have to admit I was shocked when I saw the entry and humbled by it. I know I can't take credit for it but for a brief moment I felt like Sally Fields accepting her Oscar for best actress and thinking to myself, "They like me, they really like me." Thank you to the BTCA and the committee for all their hard work, it didn't go unnoticed. Thank you to the membership for the outstanding entry, I had a blast and I sure hope it showed. Generally I was so impressed with the specials, so many truly quality exhibits. Like any specialty some classes were stronger than others but overall I think the breed is on the upswing not only in quality but popularity.

Mega apologies for being so tardy in providing my critique. Life threw some wrenches at us since mid October which caused my delay. Somethings can't be avoided and must be dealt with first. I hope you all understand.
